

The Microsoft Technology practice and its services are an integral component of ParamInfo's overall enterprise software offerings. From architecture consulting to custom application development to migration, integration we provide a complete suite of solutions and services around Microsoft Technologies. Expertise includes application development on the Microsoft .NET platform as well customizations of business solutions including SharePoint, BizTalk and Commerce servers in addition to the SQL database. Consultants and developers in the practice are industry trained professionals with a decade of business consulting and implementation experience across various Microsoft products. ParamInfo has a proven track record of having delivered several implementations for our Middle East and other global customers. With these offerings Param enables customers to streamline their business processes, improve collaboration and manage and grow customers and drive better decision making across the enterprise. Our aim is to deliver our customers cutting-edge technology services with high quality a competitive market advantage and a better return on their investments.

.NET Application Development

Microsoft .NET technology provides the ability to quickly build, deploy, manage, and use connected, robust and secure solutions. .NET solutions enable businesses to integrate your systems faster and in a more agile manner and help you achieve the agreed information anytime, anywhere, on any device. Param Info helps organizations design, develop and integrate business solutions based on the latest .NET platform.

Services we Offer:

Our wide range of .NET expertise includes the following services:

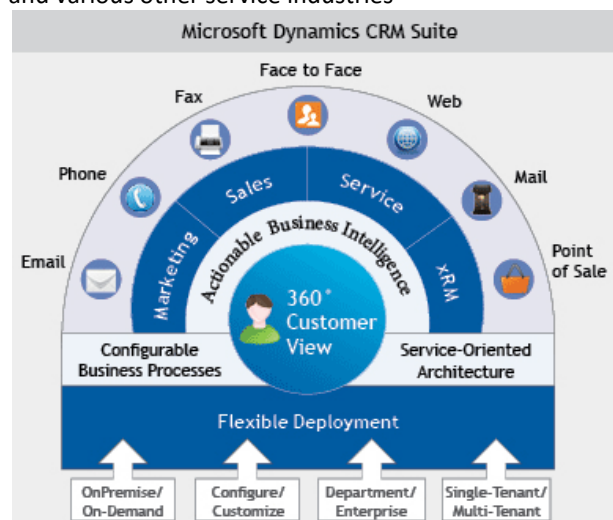

- ✓ .NET based design and application development using MVC
- ✓ Managing upgrades and technical support for existing custom and packaged apps
- ✓ Migrating legacy applications to .NET
- ✓ .NET architecture and design evaluation
- ✓ Modernization and upgrades to legacy applications
- ✓ Developing web services using the .NET framework and the SOAP toolkit
- ✓ Testing Services

Microsoft Dynamics Services

When our customers partner with us for Microsoft Dynamics services, they can drastically transform the way their organization manipulate and uses information. Leverage Param Info's proven expertise to help your organization speedup, take smarter decisions. Our consulting services follow this approach by facilitate training, assessment, planning and implementation to get your Microsoft Dynamics transformation right the first time.

Microsoft Dynamics CRM: Manage the interaction with your contacts — customers and potential customers — efficiently and smartly.

Microsoft Dynamics AX: Delivers pre-built, robust, industry leading enterprise resource planning (ERP) capabilities that are proven to be out of the box, with proven functionality for manufacturing (process, discrete, and lean), distribution, and retail, public sector and various other service industries

Microsoft Cross Platform Offerings:

We serve our customers helping them take advantage of the different platform implementation based on their specific needs:

- ✓ Web based application development
- ✓ Database Implementation using SQL Server
- ✓ Windows based implementations and
- ✓ Windows Mobile Implementation

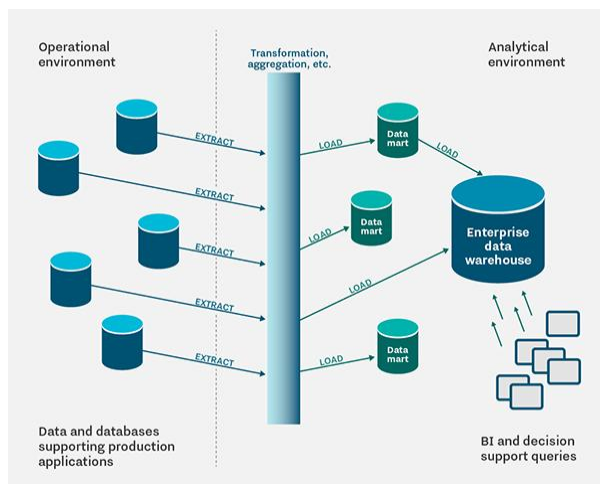

Benefits of Microsoft Dynamics:

Our Microsoft dynamics expertise helps us to deliver seamless integration of CRM to our client's retail businesses giving our customers to have:

- ✓ One point across Microsoft Dynamics technologies
- ✓ Reduce vulnerabilities, cost and time to implement
- ✓ Enhance the performance, quality and reliability

Microsoft BI and DW Practice

Param Info allows you to take advantage of our Microsoft BI Practice and use the specific and important business data to generate and develop real-time reporting, analytics and dash boarding capabilities that gives the insight to your business reports and allow your management and decision makers to take the strategic business decisions with the use of Microsoft's latest SQL and BI tools.

With our BI expertise and knowledge in this field, we collaborate with our customers to resolve their key challenges in four easy steps and ensuring that the data being used is helping them take strategic and important decisions:

- ✓ Management Dashboards & Reporting Center – Customization as per business need
- ✓ Real Time BI – to address the business and strategic decisions
- ✓ Ad Hoc Analysis & Reports – Information above the usual reports.
- ✓ Forecasting – Helps in reduction of planning Process

Microsoft SharePoint Practice

SharePoint Practice is one of the proven and demanding technologies for collaboration and sharing of business files, data with your co-workers, colleagues, business partners used for all the business requirements helping our customers to take advantage of the content management system by managing their content and publishing it with ease at their intranet, internet portal or websites.

Our SharePoint expertise is in infrastructure customizations, administration practice help manage the documents, store documents and secure the documents from unauthorized access.

The SharePoint services we offer:

- ✓ Design and Deploy
- ✓ Document Management and Custom Solutions
- ✓ SharePoint Website and Portals
- ✓ Integration to Office 365