The Oracle practice and its services are an integral component of ParamInfo's overall enterprise software offerings. From architecture consulting to custom application development to migration, integration we provide a complete suite of solutions and services around Oracle Technologies. Partnering with Oracle and with our decade old expertise in the Oracle application and database systems implementation is not just the traditional development and support, but we help our customers from capturing requirements to designing, development, integration to testing, and then implementation of a niche and cutting-edge database applications that allows them to take advantage of the disparate data sources and make use of the information to manipulate it to make it useful for their business decisions and day to day operations. We help our customer in taking advantage of our oracle CRM and ERP implementation belonging to various industries like retail, supply chain and many more.

Oracle Supply Chain Management - SCM

We have developed applications that allow our customers to take advantage of the Oracle practice implementation doing collaboration with the retailers, suppliers and stakeholders in order process data for supply and distribution of their goods and services. Our supply chain system allows our customers to store data systematically in the dedicated data sources and making them search and retrieval of data faster and with accuracy. We help our customer overcome the problem situations like demand and supply with our oracle implementation also the product lifecycle process becomes much easy manageable.

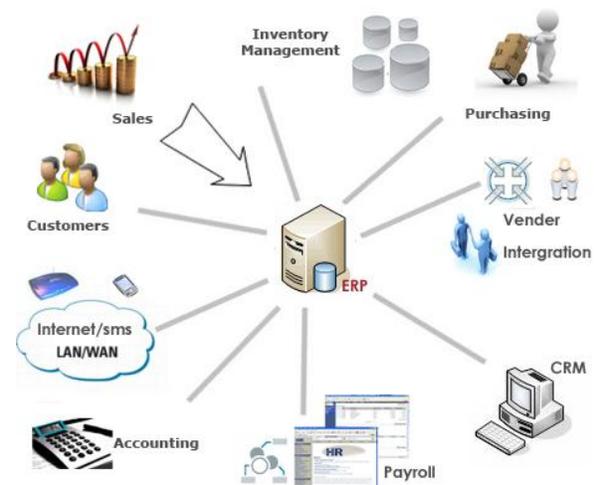

Services we Offer:
Our Oracle expertise includes the following services:
- ✓ Supplier data management
- ✓ Distribution data management
- ✓ Retail Order processing system
- ✓ Whole Sale Order Processing
- ✓ Integration to Finance and HR operations
- ✓ Complete POS system

Oracle Enterprise Resource Planning - ERP

When our customers partner with us for Oracle services, they can drastically transform the way their organization manipulate and uses information. Leverage Param Info's proven expertise to help your organization speedup, take smarter decisions. Our consulting services follow this approach by facilitate training, assessment, planning and implementation to get your Oracle databse transformation right the first time.

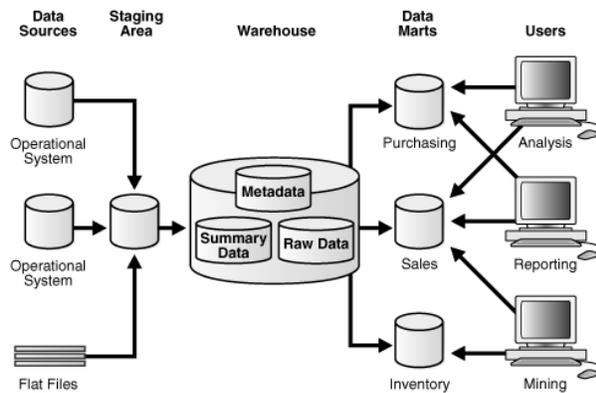

Benefits of Oracle ERP:
Our Oracle ERP expertise helps us to deliver seamless integration to our client's retail businesses and other departments giving our customers to have:
- ✓ Better quality reporting to enable intelligent business decisions
- ✓ Improve information sharing within and outside the organization
- ✓ Streamline business processes and follow best practices
- ✓ Reliable data due to automated processing

✓ Help security with more control points
✓ Compiling and analyzing profitability of each order
✓ Integration with Finance and HR operations

Oracle BI and DW Practice	Oracle Custom Applications (Cloud Advantage)

ParamInfo allows you to take advantage of our Oracle DW & BI Practice and use the specific and important business data to store data from disparate data sources by building a data warehouse, and generate and develop real-time reporting, analytics and dash boarding capabilities that gives the insight to your business reports and allow your management and decision makers to take the strategic business decisions with the use of Oracles and DW and BI capabilities.

Our expertise in developing Oracle based custom application implementations have made us unique and sought after service providers in the Middle East region. We have built several custom applications using Oracle's advanced RDBMS, cloud enabled features for our customers business driven processes. We make them use oracle's best practices and leverage the database to streamline and take advantage of it in improving their retail sales, stores, distribution, banking, finance and order processing system.

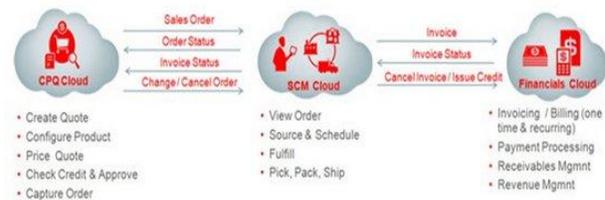

With our Oracle's DW and BI expertise and knowledge in this field, we collaborate with our customers to resolve their key challenges in five easy steps and ensuring that the data being used is helping them take strategic and important decisions:

Our Oracle Custom application expertise is in infrastructure customizations, administration practice help manage the data, store data and secure the data stores from unauthorized access. We also leverage the Oracle's cloud enabled services to build custom DB application.

The Oracle Custom Implementation services we offer:

✓ Management Dashboards & Reporting Center – Customization as per business need
✓ Real Time BI – to address the business and strategic decisions
✓ Build a robust Data warehouse for disparate data sources
✓ Ad Hoc Analysis & Reports – Information above the usual reports.
✓ Forecasting – Helps in reduction of planning Process

✓ Design and Deploy DBMS
✓ Data Management and Custom Solutions
✓ Applications Customizations and Data Modernization
✓ Faster data queries and reporting results
✓ Accurate report generation
✓ Database Integration to external systems